REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Lake View Middle School was the proud recipient of the prestigious Palmetto Silver Award during the 2011-2012 school year. Dedication and diligent work from the students, faculty, and staff over a three year period greatly contributed to earning the title of a Palmetto Silver School. In addition, Lake View Middle School was named the Best Junior High School in Dillon County. This award was sponsored by the local newspaper through the Best of the Best Reader Picks survey.

A new breakfast program was implemented during the school year. All students were served free breakfast in the classroom every morning. This ensured all students began their school day with a nutritious breakfast and enabled them to perform at their maximum potential for learning. Teachers and staff also used this time to build classroom community skills and to focus on character education. Each month, students from each homeroom were recognized for outstanding character and were awarded a school cup.

Lake View Middle School is committed to providing a positive learning environment where all students will be academically successful on a daily basis.
